CMF Associates expands management team with new director to lead key client service initiatives

October 26, 2006 – CMF Associates ("CMF"), a financial and management advisory company supporting private equity, middle-market and international companies, today announced Yonca Agatan has joined its management team as director. Agatan comes to CMF from Deloitte Consulting, where she was a senior manager in the firm's financial management practice.

A management consulting expert with more than 14 years of experience working with finance organizations, Agatan will leverage her broad financial management background in a client-service-focused role at CMF. She will head up and manage key projects for private equity, middle-market, and international companies.

At Deloitte Consulting, Agatan led projects in the areas of accounting policy and procedure development, information systems implementation, and business process improvement for companies in the life science, health care, manufacturing, consumer products/services, and financial services industries. She was previously a senior auditor at Deloitte & Touche. Agatan holds a B.S. in economics from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. She is a Certified Public Accountant and is certified by the American Product and Inventory Control Society.

"I am eager to contribute to CMF's rapid growth, fueled by its expanding team of exceptional consulting professionals and proven implementation processes and playbooks," Agatan said.

"Yonca's strong background in consulting and financial management is a perfect fit with CMF's distinctive service offering, and will bring valuable perspective and creative solutions to complex client projects," said Seth Goldblum, managing director, CMF.
