Adrian Mantini Joins CMF as Director

PHILADELPHIA (May 21, 2010) – CMF Associates, a leading provider of financial, operational, and human capital solutions to private equity, middle-market, and small cap public companies, today announced Adrian Mantini has been named a director in the firm’s financial and operational consulting group. Mantini will specialize in due diligence and post-transaction integration.

Mantini brings more than 10 years of expertise leading due diligence, finance and accounting consulting engagements to his new role at CMF. He was previously a director at PricewaterhouseCoopers, where his key client service responsibilities included leading due diligence engagements within tight exclusivity deadlines, developing purchase accounting models, performing transaction-related technical accounting work, and evaluating M&A processes.

As a senior associate in PwC’s Milan, Italy office, Mantini spent two years performing detailed due diligence analyses on target companies for international clients. Mantini has served clients in the power and utilities, manufacturing, professional services, consumer products, and retail industries, and assisted in both private and public company transactions.

“We are delighted to bring our private equity-backed and middle-market consulting clients the benefit of Adrian’s in-depth background and experience in accounting and M&A advisory, which is further enhanced through his excellent communication and project management talent,” said Thomas Bonney, managing director, CMF Associates.

Mantini holds a B.S. in accountancy from Villanova University. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
